Sprint Report 2: Don't Dine Alone

Actions your team needs to start doing:

1. We need to update the burn chart more frequently.

2. More specific and fine-grained actionable tasks, so that it's quicker and easier to pick and complete them.

3. Spend a bit more time on the project since a lot of us have been devoting more of their time to other classes.

4. We need to commit on GitHub more often.

Actions your team needs to stop doing:

1. Stop being late for scrum meetings, so that we can start on time as a group.

2. Stop relying on others for information, so that I more on what is going on in class.

3. Stop being lazy, so that we can accomplish more tasks with less stress.

Actions your team needs to keep doing:

1. We need to keep researching, so that we find good solutions to our problems.

2. Continue using Firestore, because it seems very well organized and friendly to use.

3. Keep communicating, so that we all keep on base with each other and work well together as a team.

4. Continue to assign tasks to team members so responsibilities are clear.
